Benoît Malvaux is a partner in our Tax practice.

With over 20 years of experience, Benoît focuses on the tax aspects of M&A and corporate restructuring, stock option plans, financial products and real estate transactions.

Benoît encourages a negotiated approach to issues, where appropriate, and has developed an dominant ruling practice: he has already obtained many rulings for all kinds of clients (including the Belgian State) regarding various complex tax structures.

Benoît frequently lectures at conferences on tax issues.
