Bart De Moor is a partner in our Dispute Resolution practice and in our Restructuring & Insolvency practice.

He assists and advises clients on litigation and alternative dispute resolution, corporate law, commercial law, private international law and secured debt – be they complex international issues or local matters. A lot of his work revolves around corporate disputes such as shareholder and director disputes, directors' liability and insolvency-related disputes. He also advises clients on reorganisation and insolvency and is regularly appointed by the court as an insolvency practitioner. He was an insolvency practitioner appointed by the court in the reorganisation proceedings of the Belgian airline Sabena, the companies Photo Hall Multimedia and Flamant Group, and in the bankruptcy proceedings for Photo Hall Multimedia and Free Record Shop.

Bart is a mediator in civil and commercial matters, accredited by the Federal Mediation Authority since 2007, and an insolvency practitioner appointed by the Brussels Court of Enterprises (Ondernemingsrechtbank / Tribunal de l'entreprise).

Bart is a lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (KU Leuven) and author of numerous books and articles extensively published in legal journals. He is a member of the editorial board of the legal journal DAOR (Droit des Affaires-OndernemingsRecht), member of INSOL Europe and INSOL World and a member and co-chair of the Reorganisation and Workouts Subcommittee of the Insolvency Section of the International Bar Association (IBA).
